

As an active ham radio operator, I am greatly concerned that the introduction of Broadband Over Powerline (BPL) will introduce radio interference to a number of services. I oppose the introduction of BPL unless it can be demonstrated conclusively that no other radio service will be negatively impacted.

John H. Taylor